6. Create a Personalized Protection Plan to maintain and safeguard professional ethics
7. Learn to utilize peer group discussions for ethical dilemma resolution

Course Agenda

READINGS AND ASSIGNMENTS (6 HOURS)

Course readings and assignments will cover important issues related to our TE-16 course philosophy, focusing on an in-depth understanding of ethical issues in the workplace and how to identify them. Topics will include:

Readings (2 hours):

- The Issues
- Ethics/Law Overview
- Underlying Foundation
- Concept of Moral Authority

Assignments:

- Assignment: Research and review Statutes and Code of Ethics Related to the accused offense or allegation (1 hour)
- Assignment: Educator Self-Assessment Tool ESAT (1 hour)
- Assignment: My Story Essay. Paper on the summary of ethical violation(s), growth, and plan (2 hours)

TELEPHONE CONSULTATION AND FOLLOW UP (1 HOUR)

Once assignments to research and review statutes and codes of ethics related to the offense, the Educator Self-Assessment Tool (ESAT), and the My Story assignments are completed, participants will submit these assignments to PBI for telephone review with faculty. This one hour review will cover these assignments and will offer feedback from the instructor.

READINGS AND ASSIGNMENTS (3 hours)

The second part of the course focuses on readings and assignments designed to prevent future problems and ethical violations. Participants will learn how to identify risk factors, avoid potentially problematic scenarios, and gain confidence and deeper understanding of their plan for the future. These readings and assignments will include:

- Reading: Understanding Vulnerabilities and Seeking Forgiveness (1 hour)
- Assignment: Applying the Formula© (1 hour)
- Assignment: Personalized Protection Plan: Preventing future problems (1 hour)

TELE-SEMINARS (TE-MAS) (5 HOURS)*

After completing these readings and assignments, you will attend five sessions of our Ethics: Maintenance and Accountability teleseminars. These seminars are offered every Tuesday from 9:00pm - 10:00pm and are conducted by our trained instructor. These additional hours of instruction help to cement the strategies learned throughout the course.

TELEPHONE CONSULTATION AND FOLLOW UP (1 HOUR)

Upon submission of the final assignments participants will schedule a final review with the course faculty. This one hour review will cover these assignments and will offer feedback from the instructor.

FINAL EVALUATION

After completing all the coursework, participants will complete a final evaluation to summarize everything they learned and offer feedback and recommendations.

- Assignment: Course Evaluation
